About Gail

Gail is a sought-after public speaker, moderator, teacher, Star Tribune columnist and author who counts more than 100 speaking engagements at a variety of Twin Cities organizations, book clubs, school groups and service clubs in recent years. Invite her to speak at your event!

Speaking Topics Include

- Why storytelling matters now more than ever
- Writing the right personal essay
- The joys and challenges of writing short
- Secrets and tips for crafting an irresistible story pitch (and 5 mistakes you don't want to make!)
- What's your story? Stop procrastinating and start sharing!

Plus

- The future of newspapers (Gail's vision is sunny and she'll tell you why!)
- Five myths perpetuated by the media that unnecessarily scare you to death (Parents and grandparents: This one is for you!)

Testimonials

"I have heard nothing but glowing feedback on your speech!"

"Your speech today was the most personalized, spot-on speech I've heard at that event in many years. Your words were inspiring, enormously relevant, and borne of experience. Thank you for sharing them with us."

"You were awesome! There you were on the Jumbo-tron looking spectacular and sophisticated and then your words were articulate and intelligent, which reminded me just how much you are the total package."

"I have received such positive feedback from attendees regarding how you touched people with your stories."

"You did an amazing job knitting everything together and we've heard nothing but great comments. Thank you for such a fantastic presentation!"
